Fire Safety Precautions Save SJS Student's Life

The life of Dieter Schulz, a senior language major, was saved and a $6000 collection of rare stamps escaped damage last Saturday evening because of fire safety precautions included in the Natural Science 110 lecture Friday.

Schulz was returning from his job to the apartment at 246 S. 3rd St. he occupies with three other students when he noticed smoke curling under the door.

Junior Candidate Found Ineligible; Petitions Reopened

The candidate for the office of Junior class treasurer were declared ineligible because of scholastic probation, it was learned at yesterday's meeting of the Junior class council.

In order to allow new persons to be nominated to the post, the deadline date for the filing of petitions for this office has been extended to Friday at 5 p.m., Phil Trowbridge, acting president, announced.

The budget that should be allowed for the Junior Prom by the council was discussed at great length, but nothing definite was decided.

SOPHOMORE CLASS

The SJS Soph Doll judging date was tentatively set for Feb. 28 at the Alpha Phi house at yesterday's meeting of the Soph class, according to Don Abinante, chairman of the Soph Doll contest.

Friday's aftergame dance was termed a "success," a constitution committee was organized under chairman Ron Gilpatric, and discussion of the Faculty Show was tabled until next week in other council activity.

FRESHMAN CLASS

Various food sales from cookies to pizza topped the discussion on campus fund raising projects for the freshman class, in the Frosh Council meeting yesterday in Morris Dailey auditorium.

Bill Kennedy, sophomore, and last year's Frosh president, addressed the council regarding the spirit of the class. He urged better relations between the two classes in extending the cooperation and assistance of sophomores.

SENIOR CLASS

John Landicho was elected yesterday afternoon to replace Barbara Reach as senior class representative to the Student Council until spring quarter. Miss Roach has been granted a leave of absence from the council.

In other business, the seniors voted to table the selection of announcements until the Monday meeting. President Bill Hushaw reported that Admiral Chester W. Nimitz will be invited to speak at the graduation banquet in June.

He says he remembered the precautions listed by James Craig, assistant professor of bacteriology, at the safety lecture Friday and did not open the door, running instead to a phone booth at the corner of 3rd and San Antonio Streets where he called the fire department.

San Jose Fire department inspectors credited the action with saving Schulz' life as the fire smoldering inside the apartment had built up a concentration of gas which would have ignited when the door was opened.

Schulz praised action of San Jose firemen who went into the flaming apartment to save a stamp collection valued at $6000 which received a Special Merit Award at the 1952 San Bernardino County Fair.

Damage was estimated by firemen at $3000. It included books and recordings owned by the San Jose State German club which made the apartment its unofficial headquarters.

Other occupants of the apartment, Dick Russo, Ken Aldridge, and Jim Kennedy, lost books, clothing and other valuables. They were away from the apartment when the fire was discovered. The damage was not covered by insurance.

Post Suggests Cuts In Knight's Budget

Legislative Auditor A. Alan Post today recommended cuts of $6,764,529 in Governor Goodwin J. Knight's proposed operating budget of $268,850,000, according to the United Press.

Post, financial adviser, submitted these recommendations to the assembly Ways and Means committee which opened hearings on the first part of Knight's budget.

The share of horseracing funds given to county fairs and expositions be cut from four to two percent; the California Recreation commission, the Aeronautical commission and the California Cadet Corps be eliminated; the University of California budget be cut by $2,000,000; and a $300,000 reduction for the Feather River project in the 1954-55 budget.

Pierce Urges Student Fees Be Increased

California Director of Finance John M. Pierce proposed yesterday that student fees at state colleges be increased $24 per year to help finance the state's educational program.

Pierce proposed that the $13 student fee be increased by $12 per year; that the materials and service fee be boosted from $15 to $22 and that a placement fee of $3 and a fee of $2 for evaluation of transcript be charged.

At the same time Legislative Auditor A. Alan Post recommended that the legislature set a resident fee of $20 a semester for state college students and $90 a semester for non-resident students.

E. S. Thompson, college business manager, said late yesterday that he did not think this would be passed because "it would be too hard to administer." If it did pass, however, the total effect would be "to cut enrollments," according to Thompson.

The Department of Finance also asked that fees at the University of California be raised from $84 a year to $140, an increase of $56. A proposal to increase student fees at the university was defeated last year, according to United Press.

The total amount asked by the university to support its activities in the fiscal year starting July 1 was $78,970,098, an increase of $6,802,362 over the current budget.

SJS Grades Under Study

A "minimum standard" grade-point average for students taking part in major school activities is now in the working stage of the College Eligibility committee, Dean of Men Stanley C. Benz reported yesterday.

The set of eligibility rules would affect student body office holders, officers of organizations, and editors of the Spartan Daily, La Torre and Lyke magazine.

"In setting up this minimum standard," Dean Benz said, "we are trying to make sure it doesn't conflict with any campus organization's present standards. We do not feel that we should tell these organizations how to operate."

The Eligibility committee was appointed last year, and since that time has had several meetings concerning the minimum standard. "We hope to submit a set of rules to the President's Council for approval within three weeks," Dean Benz said.

SJ Junior College Receives $1,000,000

The San Jose Junior College will receive $1,000,000 of the $7,500,000 bond issue approved by San Jose voters Friday.

This was announced today by Dr. Earle P. Crandall, superintendent of schools of the San Jose Unified School District.

Present plans call for the construction of a gymnasium and 24 additional classrooms on the present site of the junior college and San Jose Technical High school.

San Jose voters approved the bond issue by a margin of five to one Friday.

Group To Discuss Budget in Capital

E. S. Thompson, college business manager; Dean of Instruction Fred F. Harclerod and President John T. Wahlquist were to travel to Sacramento this morning for a two-day conference with Department of Education and Department of Finance officials concerning San Jose State's proposed budget allotment of $3,855,627.

Interim Session

Approximately 19 students registered for the special interim session for junior college transfers on Friday, according to the Registrar's office. Registration ended yesterday.

The special session, designed by the college to bridge the gap between the closing of the JC semester and the opening of spring quarter here, offers four courses. Classes began yesterday.

Student Court Backs Opinion On Yell Leader

Student Court yesterday upheld its opinion handed down to the Rally committee at a previous meeting that any member of the Associated students on first probation may seek and hold an appointive office.

"The court feels that policy has no place in judicial opinions or decisions and these opinions must, in a court of law, be based on existing laws and statutes," declared Stan Croonquist, chief justice.

In the opinion of the court, the Student Council is the supreme executive and legislative body within the Associated Student Body, but does not have the power to go directly into the committees and boards under its supervision, or to directly govern its internal functions under present law. Exception is made in the event that the board or committee fails to operate in accordance with the established by-laws, said Croonquist.

Specific effects of this opinion upholds the Student Council's action in requesting the Executive committee of Rally committee to remove any appointive officer within the Rally committee on scholastic probation. Enforcement of such a request, however, must come in the form of By-law legislation, according to Croonquist.

New Program For Students

Language clearance examinations and a special curriculum in English for all foreign students entering San Jose State were discussed yesterday at a meeting held by Dean of Men Stanley C. Benz.

The new curriculum, if adopted, will offer special classes in oral and written English plus classes in American heritage and customs.

Students will not be entered in any regular classes until the special series has been completed and the language examination passed.

For the past three years foreign students have been enrolled in special language help programs conducted by the English and Speech departments. These classes were given in addition to the foreign students' regular program.

The new program is planned to aid the student in overcoming language difficulties before enrolling in regular classes.

Department of Education members invited the SJS officials to come to the Capitol to discuss the budget, after Dr. Wahlquist sent a protest of the budget figures to Sacramento last week. Thompson called the budget definitely "not fair" when official figures were released Friday.

Discussion of the state staffing formula and a protest over the possible slash in college faculty

California Governor Goodwin Knight has said that he "would not oppose the reconsideration" of the SJS section of the budget by the legislature, according to information received by Business Manager E. S. Thompson yesterday.

will be the most important items scheduled for discussion, according to Thompson.

The group then will attempt to restore seven positions that were cut in the budget.

After these two points Thompson stated that there was nothing "sure" slated for discussion but that they would take advantage of "whatever opens up."

The full legislature will convene March 1 to consider the budget.

Theater Rate Sales Falter

A total of 1,691 theater rate tickets were sold by Friday, the last day of the sale, the Graduate Manager's office announced yesterday.

The figure falls far short of the 3000 goal hoped for by the student committee and local theater owners co-operating on the plan.

Bill Eckert, chairman of the student board, said yesterday that he had not yet contacted the theater managers and does not know what their reaction to the total will be. Eckert said earlier that the owners probably would not offer the special rates again next quarter if sales this quarter showed a lack of interest.

The tickets, which cost 50 cents, entitle student purchasers to discounts at the Studio, California and United Artists theaters.

Creped Cable Car Creaks into Barn

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 8—(UP)—One of San Francisco's colorful little cable cars has made its last run—but 200 mourning fans escorted the black crepe-covered ancient hillclimber right to the car barn.

Saturday night nearly a hundred riders piled aboard the Jones Street shuttle car as it started its last trip before being retired by an economy program.

As the tiny car, draped in crepe and bearing a funeral wreath, creaked into the car barn, another 100 fans were on hand to say goodbye.

But the mourners, instead of stealing quietly and unhappily away, stayed well into the early Sunday hours, singing and folk dancing—in what they all agreed was a pleasant way to say goodbye.

All About Eve

We've come a long way since Adam dragged Eve about the jungle by her hair and clobbered her in the mouth if she opened it without permission. For Miss Female the road has been long and rugged but all along the path she held her own.

For instance she learned to take those loving blows administered by Adam's open hand, and just to get even, she got poor old Adam sick on green apples and then courtmartialed off the Angels' team because he was sick on duty.

After that she had a hard time getting back in Adam's favor, but one day she took matters in her own hands and stormed the Capitol building. She was screaming "Women's Suffrage," and there was nothing Adam could do but give in.

So this week we are giving Eve her just rewards. The whole week is dedicated to her accomplishments, and we think she deserves some recognition.

Besides, Eve isn't as ugly as she used to be.

Thrust and Parry

Not Liars or Dead

Dear Thrust and Parry:

After reading Miss Fancher's letter to Friday's Thrust and Parry, I'm left with a feeling of deep resentment and downright nausea. Her letter called our Sophomore class the "dead class," and, in effect, called the class of '56 liars.

Miss Fancher, I am proud of my class. I've had a small part in the building of it and in the making of its constitution. I've seen it participate in four mixers. I've seen my class pull itself up by its bootstraps and collect several tons of clothes in an all-out clothing drive. I see a class ready to put on a faculty show, the proceeds going to the World University Service.

In light of that, Miss Fancher, the vice president of your class, can you call us a "dead class," and not feel some guilt? I doubt it. I fail to see your purpose in writing such a spiteful, ill-thought letter, but whatever the reason, it wasn't for the betterment of student relations.

Our class, through the president, vice president, soph justice and entertainment chairman, has given its word that it knows not the whereabouts of the plaque. As a past officer of the class, I'm in a position to know that these people speak the truth.

They, as I, in all sincerity, do not know where the plaque is. Not knowing is our fault and we do not deny this, but we don't like being called liars, neither do we appreciate being called a "dead class."

Miss Fancher, it's about time you and a few like you grew up and started acting like college students. You don't speak well for such a great class as you have. School spirit is fine, but not at the expense of a class' reputation. No, Miss Fancher, we're not dead, far from it, and it will never die as we're sure yours won't because your class has all the makings of one of the best classes SJS has ever seen.

Sincerely,
ROM GILPATRICK,
Former President and Vice President,

Poor Sportsmanship?

To the Student Body of San Jose State—

I have attended most of State's basketball games and I have been pleased to note the good sportsmanship of the team and student body.

The spirit at the games shown by the student body is to be commended, but I hang my head in shame at the poor sportsmanlike conduct of the students at Saturday night's College of the Pacific-San Jose State College basketball game.

I understand the rivalry between the two schools, but I do not feel this is any excuse for booing two referees who are doing their best to keep a hard-fought game under control. Furthermore, the constant heckling of individual players by the State rooters was abominable! Enough said.

Let's all keep up the cheering and leave the heckling and booing at home.

Dear Thrust and Parry:

To the "Phantom Singers"—whoever you may be. We really love to hear you sing, and we know this goes for the girls in all the houses you have serenaded. Besides being loud, you're really great. We only hope that the midnight visits don't end, and that the house mothers enjoy your singing as much as we do.

Unbeaten WSC Next for Boxers

By BOB STRIEGEL

Intercollegiate boxing at its best will take place Saturday night in Spartan gym when the Pacific Coast's two top teams, San Jose State and Washington State, meet head-on.

Both squads will put their unbeaten records on the block. Last week the star-studded Cougars of Washington State topped Idaho State College's defending national champions. Also last week, the impressive Spartans won victory

Joe Rodriguez

No. 4 in outpointing the Idaho Vandals, 5½-2½, in a dual meet at Moscow, Idaho.

The powerful Cougars of Coach Ike Deeter have a 1952 National Collegiate Athletic Assn. kingpin, a 1953 Pacific Coast Intercollegiate champion and a host of other returning lettermen.

Returning to the Washington State squad this year is Gordy Gladson, 165-lb., who walked away with PCI and NCAA titles in 1952. He was not eligible last year, but a new national rule adopted this year by the Pacific Coast Conference makes him able to compete again this season.

Gil Inaba is the other title holder for the Cougars. He won the 132-lb. PCI championship in Sacramento last year.

San Jose State Coach Julie Menendez pointed out that "Besides Gladson and Inaba, Washington State especially is strong in the 147-lb. and light-heavyweight divisions." "There is no weak spot in their line-up," he said.

One of the top bouts of the year will feature Joe Rodriguez of the Spartans and WSC's Inaba. Rodriguez, a junior from Redwood City, has vastly improved from last season when he won two, lost three and had one draw. He is undefeated this year with two convincing victories. He also has shined in a couple of exhibition contests this year.

Another outstanding bout will be in the 165-lb. division where Tom Stern has the task of facing the Cougars ace, Gladson. Menendez is very pleased with the great improvement of Stern. The local 165-pounder reversed an earlier loss to Don Anderson of Idaho last week. It was his third straight win since he was edged by Anderson in the initial meet of the season.

The winner of this crucial dual meet very possibly may go on to capture the Pacific Coast Intercollegiate team championship.

Washington State is a squad composed of many veterans with a lot of ring savvy. San Jose is a young but strong and promising team that may go a long way.

San Jose State Hopes for 2nd CBA Decision

By GIL CHESTERTON

San Jose's rejuvenated cagers, fresh from victories in their last two starts, will try to make three in a row tonight when they meet St. Mary's at Richmond. Game time is 8:20 o'clock.

Jerry Vroom's freshman team encounters the St. Mary's frosh in a preliminary tilt beginning at 6:20 p.m. San Jose, with a 1-3 league record, will pit its efforts against a Gael yearling squad which has yet to win a league game in two tries.

Should Walt McPherson's Golden Raiders, who lost to the Gaels, 57-56, last time, defeat their opponents they will go into a tie with the Moragans for fourth spot in CBA standings. St. Mary's has a 2-4 league record while the locals are 1-5.

The task will be no easy one for the Spartans since St. Mary's likewise is on a winning spree.

BOB STEINBACK

The Gaels handed league-leading Santa Clara its first loop loss last week, 66-62, and then trounced Loyola Saturday night.

Bill Sanchez, currently No. 2 in CBA scoring, is the big gun in the improving St. Mary's offense. Sanchez tallied 23 points against Santa Clara last week and now has a six game total of 97 points for a 16.2 average.

Mike Wadsworth, sophomore forward who is ninth in loop scoring; Dick Sullivan at center, and Jerry Phillips and Art Pedriano at guards round out Coach Tom Foley's probable starting five.

McPherson's biggest satisfaction in the Spartans' play has been the performance of Bob Steinback, who has proven instrumental in State's two straight wins.

Steinback, the only senior on the squad, came through with his best game while in Spartan togs Thursday against Loyola when he scored 17 points and proved a terror on the backboards.

average for six games.

Carroll Williams was held to 9 points Saturday with some slick guarding by Tiger Clyde Connor who covered the Mighty-Mouse like a shadow. Williams probably is hoping he has the same kind of night he did last time against St. Mary's when he registered 20 points.

Williams Falters In CBA Scoring

Bill Russell, USF's 6 ft. 9 in. giant, continues to pace CBA scorers this week with a 20 point average, according to statistics released yesterday by Danny Hill, league secretary.

San Jose's Carroll Williams, held to nine points against College of Pacific Saturday evening, dropped a notch from second to fifth in the scoring parade. Mighty-Mouse has tallied 91 points in six games for a 15.2 average.

The lanky USF pivot man has a six game total of 120 points for a 20 point average. He is followed

Coach Yosh Uchida Pleased With Team Showing at Meet

"We were up against some of the finest judo men in the Bay Area," said Judo Coach Yosh Uchida yesterday as he paid tribute to his squad for its showing in the Pacific Assn. Amateur Athletic Union Junior Judo tournament held in Berkeley Sunday.

"I'm very well pleased with the college team even though we did place fifth among the teams entered because most of the competition had much more experience than we."

The Spartans, although coming in fifth, were the only college team in the final count. University of California did not place.

San Francisco dojo won the tournament with 10 points. Stockton scored eight and the Palo Alto YMCA and the East Bay dojo tallied five markers. San Jose State garnered four.

Winston Dahl and teammate Jack Crawford placed second and fourth respectively for SJS in the heavyweight division.

More than 140 judoists performed at the tourney.

Uchida contended that the experience gained by members of his squad was of more value than the actual scoring of points.

ROTC Pistol Team To Have First Match

The ROTC pistol team will open its season Thursday evening at 7 o'clock with a Camp Perry match with the 382nd Ordnance Co. at the Organized Reserve armory, 1st and Rosa Sts., San Jose. Capt. Ralph E. Dillard, team coach, announced yesterday.

Currently practicing Mondays, Tuesdays and Fridays at the armory, the pistol team will face its first competition in the Thursday match. The match will be shot under the rules and regulations of the National Rifle Assn.

Capt. Dillard said that he will use seven men in the opening match. The top five will be taken as San Jose's score. Three events will be fired with .22 caliber pistols at 25 yards, 10 shots slow fire, 10 shots timed fire, and 10 shots rapid fire. A total of 300 points is possible.

Richard Kohler, F. Kaye Tomlin, Frank Martorano, Gerald Ev-

by Bill Sanchez, St. Mary's forward, who has 97 points in six starts for a 16.2 mark. Jim Young of Santa Clara has 93 points in seven games for 13.3.

Completing the top ten scorers with their averages are Al Mangin, College of Pacific, in fourth place with a 16.3 mark in four games; Ken Sears, Santa Clara, 13.2; Frank Evangelho, USF, 12.8; Bud Hjelm, 12.3; Mike Wadsworth, St. Mary's, 11.8; and Herb Schoenstein, Santa Clara, 8-3.

League standings are as follows:

	W	L	Pct.
Santa Clara	6	1	.859
College of Pacific	3	2	.600
USF	3	3	.500
St. Mary's	2	4	.333

Cage Guard Stays On Top of SJS Hoop Scoring Pile

Carroll Williams continues along at a record-breaking San Jose scoring pace with a 16.1 average, according to statistics released this week.

Williams, who became the 10th Spartan in school history to score over 300 points for San Jose, is well ahead of Stu Inman's 1949 record of 14.9 points per contest. He has 306 points in 19 games.

Williams also added his name to the record book last week against Santa Clara when he connected on 11 straight free throw attempts to shatter the one game mark of Don Edwards of nine out of 10 against Stanford last season. Williams had a string of 18 straight charity tosses before missing against Loyola.

Picture of a man changing his motor oil

It's hard to believe now, we know.

But several years back—before you could buy Royal Triton in most any city—some people who had discovered the amazing purple motor oil on a visit to California were in the habit of ordering it by mail after their return home.

When a product earns this kind of loyalty you think twice before you do anything to it, even to improve it.

Yet we have just announced Royal Triton motor oil in two new all-weather, all-climate grades: Royal Triton 5-20 and Royal Triton 10-30. They lubricate with the thoroughness of a lightweight winter oil, protect with the toughness of a heavyweight summer oil.

This is only one of hundreds of times since the end of World War II that we have improved a product you, the customer, were more than happy to keep right on buying as it was.

Why don't we wait until you demand these new and better things? Because we can't afford to. We are competing for your business, and if we don't constantly better our products our competitors will better us.

Obviously, no matter which one of the oil companies comes in first in this race, the real winner is...you.
